Corporate News

- Velesto Energy expects stronger earnings in H2

Velesto Energy Bhd expects to record stronger earnings in the second half of this year, leveraging on a better utilisation of its jack up rigs. The president said despite the prevailing volatility in oil and gas prices, there had been a significant improvement in activities locally and globally, hence, the company was also seeing an increase in utilisation rate. (Bernama)

- TA Global's 1Q net profit falls to RM121.7m

TA Global Bhd's net profit for the first quarter (1Q) ended March 31, 2019 decreased to RM121.7m from RM230.2m in the same period last year. Revenue declined to RM193.9m from RM979.6m previously, it said in a filing with Bursa Malaysia. (The Edge)

- Paramount says planning overseas property venture

Paramount Corp Bhd said the group is currently in talks with potential partners for its venture into overseas property markets within the next five years. Paramount group chief executive officer told reporters after the group's annual general meeting here that his team is currently studying the residential property markets in Thailand, Vietnam, Australia and the Philippines, and aims to pursue one or two of these markets under its five-year plan starting 2020. (The Edge)

- Perdana Petroleum bags OSV job from Petronas

Perdana Petroleum Bhd's unit clinched a three-year umbrella contract for offshore support vessel services for Petroliam Nasional Bhd (Petronas)'s petroleum arrangement contractors' (PAC) drilling and project activities. In a bourse filing, the group said its wholly-owned subsidiary Perdana Nautika Sdn Bhd (PNSB) had acknowledged receipt of a letter dated April 9, 2019 from Petronas appointing the company as a panel contractor. (The Edge)

- MAA shares fall after Melewar's SCR plan fails

MAA Group Bhd's major shareholder, the Melewar group's proposed plan to take it private through a selective capital reduction (SCR) failed. Its shares closed 20.0 sen down to 79.5 sen. They had proposed that the company undertake a SCR and repayment of RM1.1 a share. However, the plan via the SCR did not get full support from all the minority shareholders during the EGM on Wednesday. (The Star)

Macro Bits

Global

- Iran's Revolutionary Guards say Trump's Middle East peace plan will fail Iran's powerful Revolutionary Guards said on Wednesday that Washington's long-awaited Israeli-Palestinian peace plan was doomed to fail and that the Palestinian resistance movement would respond firmly to those who proposed such deal. (Reuters)
- Stocks drop, bond prices rally as trade tensions fan growth fears Fears that an escalating trade war between the U.S. and China will slash global economic growth pulled world stock markets down to near two-and-a-half-month lows on Wednesday and continued to feed a rally in safe-haven government bonds. (Reuters)

Malaysia

- Further downside seen following US Treasury decision to include Malaysia in currency manipulators' watch list The US Treasury's decision to include Malaysia in the Monitoring List of Potential Currency Manipulator would weigh on the Ringgit in the short to medium term. The move has compounded the impact brought about by the decision to potentially exclude Malaysia from the FTSE Russell World Government Bond Index announced last month. The decision hastens the USDMYR to reach a six-month low of 4.20 after months lingering in the 4.00-4.19 range. Ringgit has depreciated by about 2.0% against the USD since it passed the 4.10-mark on 10th April. (See Economic Viewpoint: Ringgit Outlook)
- Dr M says private entities like SiTerra will fund third national car project Prime Minister Dr Mahathir Mohamad has reiterated that the third national car project will be fully funded by "private entities" such as SiTerra Malaysia Sdn Bhd, which is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Khazanah Nasional Bhd. (The Edge Markets)
- Malaysia does not practise unfair currency practices, says BNM Bank Negara Malaysia (BNM) said Malaysia supports free and fair trade, and does not practise unfair currency practices. (The Edge Markets)
- Malaysia's tourist arrivals up 2.7% to 6.7 mil in 1Q; tourist receipts up 16.9% Malaysia's tourist arrivals in the first quarter of 2019 (1Q19) rose 2.7% to 6.7m from 6.52m in the same period last year. (The Edge Markets)

Asia Pacific

- Huawei challenges U.S. defense bill as sanctions fight ramps up China's Huawei Technologies Co Ltd has filed a legal motion seeking to declare a U.S. defense law unconstitutional, in the telecom equipment maker's latest bid to fight sanctions from Washington that threaten to push it out of global markets. (Reuters)
- China ready to hit back at U.S. with rare earths: newspapers China is ready to use rare earths to strike back in a trade war with the United States, Chinese newspapers warned on Wednesday in strongly worded commentaries on a move that would escalate tensions between the world's two largest economies. (Reuters)

Americas

- U.S. Special Counsel Mueller says charging Trump was 'not an option' U.S. Special Counsel Robert Mueller said on Wednesday his investigation into Russia's interference in the 2016 election was never going to end with criminal charges against President Donald Trump and that he would give no more information than was already published in his report. (Reuters)
- Democrats toughen qualifying standards for third presidential debate Seeking to cull its crowded 2020 presidential field, the Democratic Party will make it tougher for candidates to qualify for a third debate scheduled for September. (Reuters)

Europe

- Most Germans believe Merkel heir is not yet fit to replace her: poll Angela Merkel's heir apparent, Annegret Kramp-Karrenbauer, is not ready to succeed her as chancellor, a poll showed on Wednesday, in a setback to their party's plans for a smooth leadership transition. (Reuters)
- PM candidate Johnson to face court over Brexit claims Boris Johnson, the favourite to replace Theresa May as British prime minister, must appear in court over allegations he lied about Brexit by stating Britain would be 350 million pounds a week better off outside the EU, a judge ruled on Wednesday. (Reuters)
