Sersol Bhd (Trading Buy)

- The prevailing share price weakness of SERSOL – which had spiked up to a high of RM0.60 last Friday before pulling back to close at RM0.495 yesterday – presents a trading buy opportunity as its technical outlook remains positive at this juncture.
- After bouncing off from the 38.2% Fibonacci retracement line to overcome the 100-day SMA, coupled with the MACD crossing over the signal line (in the oversold area) and the momentum indicator on the rise (above the zero-line), the stock will likely resume its upward trajectory ahead.
- On the way up, SERSOL shares could climb to challenge our resistance targets of RM0.60 (R1; 21% upside potential) and RM0.67 (R2; 35% upside potential).
- Our stop loss price level is set at RM0.39 (or a 21% downside risk).
- Fundamental-wise, the group is involved in the coating business, namely plastic & metal coatings (for the electronic & electrical industry), wood coatings and decorative coatings.
- SERSOL made a minute net loss of RM0.1m in 3QFY21 (versus a breakeven position in the same quarter the previous year), taking its 9MFY21's net profit to RM0.1m (versus a net loss of RM0.2m during the same period last year).
- With a debt-free balance sheet, the group is financially stable, backed by cash holdings of RM10.3m (or 4.0 sen per share) as of end-September 2021.

Technical Terms:

Reversal Candlesticks	Patterns	Description
Doji Dragonfly Doji (Bullish) Gravestone Doji (Bearish)		Dojis form when a security's open and close are virtually equal. The length of the upper and lower shadows can vary, and the resulting candlestick looks like, either, a cross, inverted cross, or plus sign. Doji convey a sense of indecision or tug-of-war between buyers and sellers.
Engulfing Pattern		A reversal pattern that can be bearish or bullish, depending upon whether it appears at the end of an uptrend (bearish engulfing pattern) or a downtrend (bullish engulfing pattern). The first day is characterized by a small body, followed by a day whose body completely engulfs the previous day's price action.
Hammer (Bullish) Shooting Star (Bearish)		Hammer candlesticks form when a security moves significantly lower after the open, but rallies to close well above the intraday low. This appears in a downtrend. In contrast, the Shooting Star pattern appears in an uptrend. It opens higher, trades much higher, then closes near its open. It looks just like the Inverted Hammer except that it is bearish.
Inverted Hammer (Bullish) Hanging Man (Bearish)		The Inverted Hammer is a single-day bullish reversal pattern. In a downtrend, the open is lower, then it trades higher, but closes near its open price, therefore looking like an inverted lollipop. Hanging Man candlesticks form when a security moves significantly lower after the open, but rallies to close well above the intraday low.
Harami Harami Cross		The Harami is a two-day pattern that can be bullish or bearish. It has a small body day completely contained within the range of the previous body, and is the opposite colour. The Harami Cross is similar to the Harami. The difference is that the last day is a Doji.
Marubozu		A Marubozu candlestick has no shadow extending from the body at either the open, the close or at both.
Morning Doji Star (Bullish) Evening Doji Star (Bearish)		A Morning Doji Star (Evening Doji Star) is a three-day candlestick bullish (bearish) reversal pattern - a long-bodied black (white) candle extending the current downtrend, a short middle candle that gapped down (up) on the open, and a long-bodied white candle that gapped up (down) on the open and closed above (below) the midpoint of the body of the first day.
Spinning Top		Spinning Tops are candlestick lines that have small bodies with upper and lower shadows that exceed the length of the body. They are similar to the Doji candlesticks, and signal indecision.
